Steve Cole

In the 15 years since the release of his debut record, saxophonist Steve Cole has traveled full-circle creatively and arrived back home on his new release, "Pulse," a 10-song set mixing R&B, contemporary jazz, gospel, blues and pop that he produced with fellow saxman David Mann. The new collection surveying Cole's musical passions showcases the artist's affinity for infectious melodies, a wall of horns, and soulful grooves.

David Shyde

David Shyde grew up immersed in the rich musical & colorful traditions of his amazing birthplace, Brazil. In addition to being raised listening to traditional Brazilian music, he was also absorbed in the edgy artistry of Buddy Guy, Mr. BIG, AC/DC, Metallica, Joe Satriani and Led Zeppelin. He grew up singing and playing blues and rock while maintaining a fond appreciation of Brazilian samba and bossa nova. When you take all of that musical influence and combine it with David's silky and soulful voice what you get is the "Shyde Sound".
