

Thursday, April 10, 2014 - 5:00 p.m. – 7 p.m.

The opening event, “Different Shades of Lipstick ... Women Influencing Culture”, is sure to provide some lively and entertaining insights into how women have influenced culture here and everywhere. This star-studded panel discussion, presented by PSWIFT (Palm Springs Women in Film and Television), will culminate with Q&A session that is sure to delight if not surprise. Following the program, you will have a chance to meet the presenters at a wine and cheese reception in the lobby of City Hall. Kindly RSVP at 760-324-4511.

Location: Rancho Mirage City Hall

Friday, April 11, 2014 – 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

A magical open-air event under the stars will showcase Mariachi Los Palmeros, a group of seven professional musicians who share a passion for the lively, extroverted sound of mariachi music – from the latest rancheras to romantic boleros. Two sets of dancers from Mexico’s Ballet Folklorico will add a special element to the performance.

Location: The Amphitheater at The River

Emerging Young Artists –

Our artful day continues with a delightful display of fabulous and feisty art of some unbelievably talented “emerging young artists” ages 8- 10. The works of our talented young people are presented by Tools for Tomorrow, a local nonprofit serving hundreds of Coachella Valley school children after regular school hours with free, engaging, and professionally designed classes. Their paintings are simply amazing and will be on display at City Hall, Conference Room 3, from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
